Makawao - This prestigious exhibition offers an opportunity for viewers to view current work of local and mainland artists in all media, including ceramics, printmaking, sculpture, photography, jewelry, digital media, fiber, painting, glass, and wood. Guest juror(s) include respected curators and artists from Maui, Hawai'i and beyond, offering a different perspective for a unique exhibition each year.

We are proud to present Duncan Dempster as this year's Juror for the exhibition. Duncan Dempster is a Honolulu-based artist and educator working primarily in print media. In addition to a personal studio practice, he has been involved in many collective printmaking projects involving community outreach, collaboration, and exteriorized studio strategies, most recently a project called .5ppi.
